New FIRE in Beirut Port.

It's been a month and 6 days. People are afraid and disappointed they don't care about coronavirus any more, they care about surviving in my country...

I took the last image 2 weeks ago while we were cleaning the roads. I mean guys read it, people were displaced from their homes and they are innocent...

What should I say!!!! I'm speechless...

We don't deserve this

Hello everyone, ❤️

Here are some dream catchers I made during this crisis. I've searched in YouTube how to make dream catchers and I tried my best.

I didn't know that I have such skills but it turned out that I knew 😎👉

Tell me your feedback 😊

Healthy mind, healthy life 🤝

Hello everyone, ❤️

So yesterday I was pitching the idea "A Better You" which aims at creating a healthy environment and support to those battling with mental health.

And of course, there was social distancing, masks, sanitizers everywhere...

Pitching day was a success 😎

And yes, we won the first place ✅

We are young entrepreneurs; we are the future 🤝

Hello everyone, ❤️

My friends and I decided to take a break from this world and to take advantage of this pandemic. We are making a series of camping before school to discover new gems in my beloved country to refresh our souls.

Away from political problems, the blast, Covid-19... To start a new beginning.
